NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Dreyfus Case Now Absorbing French Interest.

EUROPE TREATED TO A HOT WAVE.

Frenchmen Have Learned to Bear the Heat With Philosophical Calmness—Everybody Bathes in the Sea and the Bathing Costumes are Extremely Simple.

MARSEILLES, Sept. 4.—Doubtless the fact will be all but ancient history when this letter reaches Massillon—the arrest of Colonel Henry and his subsequent suicide, but lest some of the circumstances may have been crowded out of sight by the flood of army news at home, I may venture to give a running account of the events which absorb French interest at the present time. Presumably most people know that Captain Dreyfus, of the French army, is now imprisoned on Devil Island for having revealed to a foreign government secrets confided to him as an officer, and concerning the national defense. The verdict of the court has led to bitter controversy, and indirectly has given rise to the anti-Jewish agitation in France and Algeria. Not wishing to comment on the subject in any manner I now quote from the Paris Herald's account of later proceedings:

"When the question of the legality of condemnation was first raised the existence of two letters were revealed, at first in veiled terms and afterwards in a more certain form. Finally the text of these letters became public. They were communicated to the journal 'L'Eclair,' though by what means has never been disclosed. M. Sabatier, the director of the 'Eclair,' when questioned by M. Bertulus, the examining magistrate, pleaded the 'secret professionnel,' and refused to furnish any information. The first of these letters was dated March, 1894, and is stated to have been addressed by the military attache of a foreign power to one of his colleagues. In it he mentions that a certain D—— had brought him interesting intelligence in regard to which he desired to consult his confrere.

"The second letter was dated a month later. In it the same writer stated that 'Ce canaille de D——'('That scoundrel D——')had brought some further information.

At the first trial of M. Zola, Me. Labori, the novelist's counsel, pointed out that the letters were not even conclusive, as there was no absolute proof that they referred to Captain Dreyfus. It was at this point that the forged letter came on the scene for the first time. The following is the description of the incident as given in the stenographic report of the proceedings before the Assize Court. The witness under examination was General de Pellieux. He said: "At the moment of the Castelin interpellation an incident happened of which I think it right to inform you. We had at the ministry of war—and note well that I am not speaking of the Dreyfus affair—the absolute proof of the guilt of Dreyfus, the absolute proof, I repeat, and this proof I have seen. At the moment of this interpellation a paper was brought to the ministry of war, the origin of which cannot be contested, and which said: 'There is going to be an interpellation on the Dreyfus affair. Never tell any one of the relations which we had with that Jew.'

"Well, gentleman, an attempt has been made to obtain a revision of the Dreyfus case by indirect means. I have just given you this fact. I affirm it on my honor, and I call on General de Boisdeffre to confirm my deposition."

The exact text of the letter in question only transpired, however, three weeks ago, when, on July 7, M. Cavaignac, in reply to the interpellation of M. Castelin, read it from the tribune of the chamber and again answered for its authenticity. The minister of war said:

"Though, in my eyes, it is certain from the ensemble of concording circumstances, of which I have just spoken, that it is to Dreyfus to which the two first letters refer, if one can admit that a certain doubt may subsist from the fact that the name is only indicated by an initial, I will lay before the chamber another document in which the name of Dreyfus figures in full. (Movement.)

"At the moment M. Castelin announced his interpellation in the months of October and November, 1896, the correspondents of whom I have been speaking, got anxious for reasons which are clearly indicated in the letters which I have before me, and then one of them wrote the letter of which the following is the text: 'I see that a deputy is going to interpellate about Dreyfus. If (and here is a phrase I cannot read), I will say I never had any relations with that Jew. It is understood. If you are asked, say so too, for it must never be known that we had anything to do with him.'"

Two days later, Colonel Picquart wrote a letter to the prime minister offering to prove that the two first letters read by M. Cavaignac had nothing to do with the Dreyfus case, and that the third was a forgery. The following day Colonel Picquart was arrested. On the heels of this event came the discovery that Colonel Henry had forged the letter read by M. Cavaignac, and a little later he committed suicide, again convulsing an entire nation.

No nation in the world does so much for the poor and helpless members of society as America. You appreciate the fact after seeing poverty in all its hideous obtrusiveness in Europe. Here the lame, the halt and the blind are supported by voluntary contributions and beggars fight for eligible locations where they can expose their woes with best results. Charity of this sort is necessarily often misplaced and is provocative of an increase of indigence. As a rule it is the poor who give to the poorer. You notice that humble house maids and others who are scarcely beyond the reach of need themselves never leave their homes without a supply of "sous," which they drop into willing hands. Opposite my office a supposed cripple, suffering from a supposed nervous disease, holds forth very often, and from my window I can see him wagging his head and carrying on in a dreadful manner as passersby approach, but when they are once beyond him an immediate recovery is effected until another victim gets within range. I was told a few days ago of a heartless mother, who, in order to wring money from the public, actually placed a spider on her child's left eye, bandaged it there, and went out in the street with the tortured and screaming infant to beg. A good woman, a sister of charity, eventually came along and insisted upon examing the child. At first the mother demurred, but a policeman took a hand in the controversy and at last the truth was revealed, but not before the baby's eye had been eaten out.

In the earlier days of summer I put forth some inexperienced observations on the agreeable state of the temperature, but for some recent weeks I have been obliged to admit that the red hot quality of the weather has been unmistakable, although at present a much better condition exists. All Europe has been treated to a hot wave and in London, where one would expect a much lower temperature than here, the reverse has been true. For three weeks we have had here a temperature of thirty-three degrees centigrade. That is equivalent to 91 Fahrenheit. In both London and Paris the thermometers have shown from three to ten degrees more. Nobody does any more here than the law allows and as the population is used to a long hot rainless summer the heat is taken with philosophical calmness.

Marseilles is fortunate in being right on the sea shore. Nearly everybody manages to get into the water once a day. A singular feature about sea bathing here is that no Frenchman likes to go in when the waves are running high. The surf which Americans prefer above all things the Frenchman abhors. At the fashionable bathing place there is a stone breakwater erected at great cost so that society can always have smooth water. On a hot evening just about sunset you can see ten thousand people in bathing costumes running from everything down to nothing. Although you can find bathing pavilions where you can prepare for a bath for as little as four cents in our money, there are thousands who cannot or will not spend that much. Family parties will come down to the sea, climb over the rocks, unfold a sheet and hold it for each other as a screen until all are ready for the plunge. There are those who do not take that much trouble, but it is not considered nice. The local paper of the other day protested because hundreds of young men bathe in the Old Port in front of the Hotel de Ville without going to the pains of getting into a bathing suit. When I explain that the location is about the same in Marseilles as the street in front of the postoffice at Massillon, you will see the force of the objection.

The Frenchman wears a bathing suit about like the suits worn at home, but the costumes for ladies are much more simple. The skirt is simply a continuation of the blouse and reaches to the hips. There are knickerbockers of course, and that is all. The woman who would wear stockings would make herself more conspicuous than if she clung to the ways of the world in this part of it. After a bath everybody takes a little something and the entire operation carries you well into the evening, when it is fairly cool. Just now the moon is doing its duty, and makes the scenes along the Corniche very beautiful. Many excellent musicians wander about and everybody has a great deal of enjoyment at very little cost.

Although Marseilles has a bad reputation, due to causes now non-existent, the public health is good outside the quarters of the poor, where thousands of human beings herd together like cattle. The secret of health at this season lies in table temperance. Frugality is the word of the hour, and a Frenchman can have as much fun with a glass of vermouth as an American can with a dinner and a quart of beer. The people here, who pride themselves on keeping well, eat lightly, always choosing more vegetables than meat, top off with cheese and a little ripe fruit, do not know what ice water is and never drink water anyway. They drink wine with their meals whether they want to or not, as an aid to digestion. R. P. S.

NATURAL GAS ORDINANCE.

It Has Been Passed by the New Philadelphia City Council.

UHRICHSVILLE, Sept. 15.—The ordinance granting a franchise to the East Ohio Gas Company was passed by the city council of New Philadelphia last night, under a suspension of rules. There was no opposition. The line will go directly through Massillon to Akron if Canton does not promptly accept the gas company's proposition.

Now is the time to subscribe.

WHAT A REGULAR SAYS.

First Sergeant Ryan Speaks of His Experiences.

HAS NO CAUSE FOR COMPLAINT.

Good Treatment While in Camp at Santiago, and the Best of Care While Sick—Edgar Oberlin Returns—News of the Sick Soldiers and All the Others.

First Sergeant Ryan, of Troop K, First United States cavalry, arrived in Massillon Wednesday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Ryan, and until their departure for Canal Dover today were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Higginbotham, at their West Main street residence. Mrs. Ryan is a cousin of Mrs. Higginbotham. Sergeant Ryan was recently granted a furlough of three months, a large part of which, with Mrs. Ryan, he will spend in Stark and Tuscarawas counties, in both of which they have many relatives and friends. Sergeant Ryan enlisted in the United States army fourteen years ago, and previous to the war was stationed at Fort Riley, in Kansas. He left Tampa for Santiago on June 7th, arriving there just in time to participate in the battle of June 24th, the first fought on the island between Spanish and American troops. There were no volunteer infantry on the American side, all the soldiers being either regulars or Rough Riders. Sergeant Ryan was shot in the knee in this engagement, and has not yet recovered entirely from the injury.

"The treatment that we soldiers received in Cuba and elsewhere," said Sergeant Ryan, "was all that we had a right to expect. We were not starved in Cuba, though the fare was coarse. There was plenty of it, however. The treatment I received in the hospital was excellent. The very best of care was taken of me. Altogether I think that all that was possible was done both in Cuba and at Montauk. Soldiers must expect hardships, and they must obey their officers and the regulations. There is the great difficulty with volunteers Many of them have been used to easy, independent living. In the army they do not find the fat of the land, and they are made to do as they are told. That is what hurts, and you can't blame them. Soldiering is a trade that must be learned, and obedience and the acceptance of things as they come, no matter how great the hardship, are two of the first lessons. From my own personal knowledge I know many of the reports in circulation concerning the suffering and ill-treatment to be exaggerated."

ARRIVES FROM HUNTSVILLE.

"If they are not going to take us to Manila," said Private Edgar Oberlin, of Troop D, First Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, who reached Massillon at 8 o'clock Thursday morning, "I wish they would muster us out. I am anxious to get back to my studies. Just as soon as I become rested I shall go to the Ohio State University and spend the remainder of my thirty days' furlough with my class. Of course if they decide to take us to the Philippines I want to be a soldier, for the trip will be of more value to me than what knowledge of civil engineering I could gain in the same time in school. I have come direct from Huntsville, Ala., and have been traveling since Tuesday morning. I have had about all the soldiering among southerners I want. In Florida they have little more respect for a soldier than a dog." Private Oberlin's health is good, though he weighs twenty-two pounds less than he did when he enlisted in May. At one time he says he weighed but ninety pounds He was suffering then from fever and overwork. Private Oehler is the only Massillon boy left at Huntsville. He told Private Oberlin that he had some thought of remaining in service the three years.

CAPTAIN FISHER CALLS.

Captain Fisher, of Canton, called upon the Massillon boys who are members of Company L, of which he has command. He inquired particularly after Harry Curley, and was much pleased to hear that he was improving. Mr. Curley's father writes that his son is steadily regaining his health, but is still too ill to be moved. He expects to bring him home within two weeks, however.

CHARLES LAUGHLIN HOME.

Charles Laughlin, of this city, who enlisted in the cavalry at Cleveland, arrived home today. Mr. Laughlin has grown a moustache and goatee, and many of his friends failed to recognize him.

THE SICK SOLDIERS.

Private William Graves is steadily improving, and will be up and about in the course of a week or two. Harry Dobson's condition is still serious. Private Geoghan has practically recovered. Private Strobel is getting along very nicely, though it is doubtful if he will ever be as strong as he once was.

A New Tent at Cincinnati.

Alliance Review: Misses Minnie Trescott and Gertrude Seacrist returned home this morning from Cincinnati, where they attended the national encampment of the Grand Army. These patriotic Daughters of Veterans did not return immediately after the reunion, but remained in Cincinnati to start the first Daughters of Veterans tent ever organized in that city. Their work has been highly successful, and a fine company of daughters has been brought together, and will be formed into a regular tent as soon as supplies are sent on from state headquarters.

THE PROPOSITION ACCEPTED.

Massillon Elks to Conduct the German Village.

At a special meeting held Friday night the local lodge of Elks accepted the proposition of the Massillon Street Fair Association and will assume charge of the German village. F. A. Vogt, O. E. Young, F. W. Preyer, S. R. Weirich and John Keller were appointed as a committee to complete arrangements. This committee will also select members of the lodge for duty each day during the fair.

WORK ON THE MIDWAY

The German Village Begins to Take Form.

ADDITIONAL WATCHMEN APPOINTED

Societies Making Arrangements for the Parade—There Will be No Gambling at This Street Fair—A New Attraction Secured. Last Night's Meeting.

The east end of the Midway, which is at the intersection of Tremont and East streets, was closed today. Special Policeman Seeley was stationed at the Erie street entrance, and all persons having no business within were refused admittance. This was necessary, as the work of decorating and trimming the booths is now in progress, and a curious, inquiring crowd would be a great annoyance to the artists and others who are converting the rude structures into the beautiful places that they will be when the gates are thrown open to the public next Wednesday.

The German village, whose administrative officers will be Elks exclusively, is to be located at the south end of the Hotel Sailer park. The town wall was built today, and the rest will be done on Monday and Tuesday. A new attraction has been secured for the Midway. This will be a troupe of Hindoo jugglers. The electrical towers are being constructed today, the wires being brought within the inclosure through underground conduits.

The street fair association held a meeting Friday evening, at which it was decided not to allow gambling of any character whatever on the grounds. Permission will be given to no one to conduct games of chance on the Midway or any other place. The closing of the east end of Tremont street was discussed, and it was decided that the fence should be so constructed that while East street would be partially blocked, Tremont could be reached from North East street. By this arrangement the convenience and safety of Schnagaloch will not be interfered with, as plenty of space has been allowed for teams. Should a fire break out in this neighborhood, the department could easily get to it. Sherman Cochran has been appointed a special night watchman to assist Sherman Budd.

NEWS OF THE SOLDIERS.

A Man Who Survived an Attack of Yellow Fever in Massillon.

H. V. White, who is connected with the Millersburg Republican, left for Holmes county this morning, when he brought to a close a very pleasant visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Fox. Mr. White returned from Cuba not long since, being a member of the Eighth Ohio, and is one of the very small number of men who contracted yellow fever and lived to tell about it. "I enlisted," said Mr. White, this morning, "thinking I might find my health in the army, for I had not been strong for some time. I found 'Yellow Jack' instead. I think, however, that before long I shall be in better health than I ever was before. I feel better already."

Telegraph Operator Kick, of Loudonville, well known in local railway circles, having been employed here at various times, was in Massillon this morning, en route to his home. Private Kick belongs to Battery B, Pennsylvania.

Three trains whose passengers were all soldiers passed through Massillon over the Pennsylvania this morning. Two were east bound and were made up of twenty-four cars. The soldiers aboard were from St. Paul, and were en route to Camp Meade. The other ten coaches carried west boys who had just arrived rom Porto Rico.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON INCIDENT.

Telephones Were Burned Out, Fire Bell Rang and a Man Was Hurt.

The fire bell rang and a number of Bell telephones about town became useless at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Near the intersection of Cherry and Mill streets some unknown person found one of the trolley wires' guys hanging down. He gave it a toss out of the way, and it fell across the telephone and fire alarm wires overhead. This caused the mischief. Lineman Merrell went out to look for the trouble. He found it, and in his efforts to right matters his left hand came in contact with a live wire. He was painfully burned, but was able to resume work this morning.

Arrangements for Dedicating the State Hospital Completed.

GOVERNOR BUSHNELL TO BE HERE.

A Reception to be Given by the Massillon Club in His Honor—Other Distinguished Guests Expected—Result of the Meeting of the Trustees Held on Friday.

The trustees of the Massillon state hospital, who met in this city Friday afternoon, decided to formally open the institution on Thursday, September 29. Superintendent Richardson stated this morning that the date was subject to change, however, providing it would not be convenient for Governor Bushnell to leave Columbus on that day. He will consult the governor in the meantime, but does not anticipate any alteration of the plans. The programme for the dedicatory exercises has not yet been completed, but will include an address by Governor Bushnell and a historical address relative to the institution, which will be delivered by the president of the board of trustees, Samuel J. McMahon, of Cambridge.

The address of welcome on behalf of the city will be made by some person not yet decided upon, who shall be selected by the Massillon board of trade. The programme will also include suitable musical features, and arrangements will be made to escort those who attend the exercises through the institution. Governor Bushnell and other distinguished visitors will be guests of the Massillon Club and a reception will be given in their honor. The arches erected for the street fair will be left intact until after this occasion, and business places and dwelling houses will be decorated in honor of the governor's arrival. Visitors are expected from all over the state, especially from cities possessing state institutions.

Stronger Than the Law.

Statesmen and prominent men in political circles are all agreed that the proper training of the young is a greater safeguard to any people than all the laws on their statute books. It certainly is better to train children in such a way as to make good citizens of them and thus prevent criminality, than it is to make laws to punish criminals This is the reason why the best people of every creed in the state of Ohio are so deeply interested in the Sunday school work of our state. The Sunday schools are the standing armies of Ohio. "Our Emblems of Liberty" is the title of a splendid concert exercise furnished free to all Sunday schools in Ohio which will use it on Association Day, the last Sunday in September. For free samples and particulars address Marion Lawrance, Toledo, Ohio.

Democrats in convention assembled at Alliance on Friday nominated Charles C. Weybrecht for Congress and at the same time adopted resolutions denouncing the conduct of the war by the administration which made their candidate a major and sent him to fight for his country. Now, was Mr. Weybrecht's appointment to serve in this military capacity the one redeeming act of a corrupt and inefficient government, or was inconsistency born a Democrat"

The computed number of Jews in the world at present is about 8,000,000, those in America numbering over 400,000, and for these, according to the Jewish calendar, 5,659 years have elapsed since man first received the spirit of life. The Jewish new year, like all Jewish Sabbaths, festivals and feasts, will begin at sunset, and on Saturday the remnant of the twelve tribes of Israel in every quarter of the globe will be observing identical forms and ceremonies used in the celebration of a great national holiday.

General C. H. Grosvenor, who had actual experience with the hardships of the Civil war, and who fully understands what soldiers must undergo when they march to the front, has little patience with the cry which is being raised by the Democratic press in regard to the suffering of American troops in the war with Spain. During the Civil war there were one hundred and eighty men in General Grosvenor's regiment sick with typhoid fever in a single week. "There was much more sickness during that war than this," he says, "yet there was no complaint."

The result of the recent election in Maine should serve as a lesson to apathetic Republicans all over country, who are taking for granted the election of a Republican congress. Republicans of Maine considered it unnecessary to spend time and money in a campaign the results of which were assured, while the Democrats made as aggresive a campaign as they could with the consequence that although the Republicans carried the state, there was a reduction in the vote of about twenty-one per cent. The congressional situation demands hard work from this time on if there is to be a Republican victory in November.

Admiral Dewey's squadron has grown to a fleet since the battle of Manila bay. With the addition of the Oregon and the Iowa he will have eighteen vessels under his command, some of them only colliers and supply ships, it is true, but all manned and armed by American seaman. When the Iowa and Oregon arrive he will have in his fleet four ironclads, five cruisers, four gunboats, an armored transport captured from the Spanish and four supply ships and colliers. Added to these, the forts at the entrance to Manila bay and the batteries at Cavite are in possession of the American forces. Altogether the position of Admiral Dewey and General Otis would be strong in the event of almost any form of interference with the intentions of the United States government.

It is becoming more and more evident that much that concerns the momentous question of the future government and ownership of the Philippine islands must be left to the discretion of the peace commission, and to developments which can be followed by additional instructions. At present the policy of the administration has evidently not progressed further than a determination to demand the cession of the entire island of Luzon as a basis for consideration by the joint Spanish-American commission, and to insist that whatever the outcome of the negotiations, the United States shall in the future be in a position to dictate the control and disposition of the entire Philippine archipelago There is now a greater probability than ever that the vital question of whether all or only part of the islands shall come into the posession of this country will not be disposed of and set forth in the instructions which the commissioners will carry with them

According to recent information from Washington, the demands of the United States for concession of territory from Spain to be made by the American peace commissioners include only the island of Luzon, the chief island of the Philippine archipelago, in which is situated the city of Manila, but this demand is to be coupled with a sister ce that Spain shall give guarantees which will practically secure to the United States the future control of the entire group. There is every reason to believe that the rest of the islands will be permitted to remain under Spanish rule, but that it will be stipulated that the government must be of a character entirely satisfactory to us and no disposal of them be made without the consent of our government. In a measure the United States will assert control, but not ownership, over the entire Philippine archipelago and will be responsible for the maintenance of an orderly, just and humane administration of affairs.

Public interest is now centering upon the decision which the President is expected to arrive at on Friday, concerning the instructions to be given to our Paris commissioners. The President is evidently anxious to follow the sentiment of the country, and already he has heard enough through the press to convince him that a large proportion of the people of the United States are in favor of keeping the friuts of Dewey's victory, but there are men of influence and experience who feel that little or any of the islands should remain under the stars and stripes, and how far these men will influence him remains to be seen. It is probable, however, that the American commissioners will not be instructed to make as the minumum demand anything less than the retention by the United States of the entire island of Luzon, and that the administration will deem it wisest to leave a number of other matters to adjustment as they come up. One thing is certain: The United States government will not recognize any right on the part of Spain to mention her former Western possessions before the body to assemble in Paris, as the signing of the protocol was a pledge that she would evacuate Cuba and Porto Rico.

LIBRARY NOTES.

"Reading furnishes the mind only with materials of knowledge; it is thinking that makes what is read ours."—John Locke.

As there seems to exist some misunderstanding of the term, "charging system," as used in connection with the McClymond's public library, it may be said here that this expression refers only to the method by which books are loaned to the public and are kept track of during their absence from the shelves. The library with its circulating and reference departments, the reading rooms and its special collection of books and periodicals for children, will be absolutely free, and as the intention is to make it an institution of practical benefit as well as of pleasure to the people of Massillon and vicinity, it should be so used as to properly express appreciation of a munificent bequest.

To the great mass of boys and girls, the school can barely give the tools with which to get an education after they are forced to begin their life as breadwinners. The great problem of the day is, therefore, to carry on the education after the elementary steps have been taken in the public schools. There are numerous agencies at work in this direction; reading rooms, summer vacation and night schools, correspondence and other forms of extension teaching, reading circles and study clubs; but by far the greatest agent is good reading. And one thing for which the schools should strive is to send out their pupils with greater skill in the use of books and libraries, with a practical dislike for the weak, frivolous and sensational, and with a genuine love, if possible, for the best literature. Then, indeed, the public library becomes the people's university, and its value to the community so great as hardly to be estimated.

The Greeves Affair

The suspension of an officer, the aggravation of the strained relations between the mayor and a part of the police force, the possibility of a suit for damages against the city, and a variety of strange tales concerning the character and conduct of certain individuals, with the gossips busy increasing the number—these things and many more, are, directly or indirectly, the outgrowth of the arrest of Joseph J. Greeves, internal revenue collector for northern Ohio, who, Policeman McGuire avers, was disorderly in Massillon at about 1 o'clock Thursday morning. Policeman McGuire, as this paper stated last evening, refused to give the prisoner over to Mayor Wise, after the latter had been aroused from his sleep by friends of the arrested man, and even threatened to take the mayor himself into custody if he interfered with him in the discharge of his duty. The prisoner was in jail, as is known, until the officer was satisfied that all legal forms had been observed.

Mr. Greeves arrived in Massillon at a late hour on Thursday night. He immediately went to Mayor Wise and entered a plea of not guilty. The trial will take place September 26. Mr. Greeves left Massillon this morning and will not return until this evening, and perhaps not then. He said nothing concerning the case except that he had been arrested without cause and that he intended to fight. About the rumors concerning a damage suit against the city for false imprisonment, he said nothing. Mr. Greeves thinks it best to wait until after his trial.

THE POLICEMAN SUSPENDED.

Officer McGuire Now Enjoys an Enforced Vacation.

Mayor Wise called his seven policemen into his court room Thursday evening, a few minutes before they left for their beats, and, taking his position behind the desk on the platform, sternly said: "I want it distinctly understood that instructions I give this police force are to be carried out strictly. You (addressing Policeman McGuire) grossly insulted me last night."

"I don't think I did," replied the officer. "In fact I think it was I who was insulted. I am sorry if you feel so, but if there is an apology due any one it is to me. In arresting that man I only did my duty, and I ought not to have been interfered with."

"Yes, but you had no right to talk to me the way you did last night," declared the mayor.

"Look here, Mayor Wise," then fairly shouted the officer, "I will not be bulldozed by you or anybody else.' And I want to say that if you conduct yourself again in the manner of last night I shall be obliged to lock you up, mayor though you are."

"Officer McGuire, I suspend you," said the mayor, and he stepped down from his elevated position. Officer McGuire took off his helmet and badge, put them away in one of the closets, and then left the room, at the same time remarking that he would report for duty on Friday evening, and that he would expect to be paid for all the time he was not on his beat

WHAT THE MAYOR SAYS.

Did not Suspend Officer McGuire Because of the Arrest.

"I did not suspend Policeman McGuire because he arrested Mr. Greeves," said Mayor Wise, Thursday evening, some time after his meeting with the officers. "I did so because he declined to obey orders Nobody can say that I ever mistreated an officer. I can stand a great deal, and I have stood a great deal. I am not hasty; but as the mayor of this city I certainly am entitled to some little respect from the officers whom I appoint. My orders must be obeyed. If they are not, what's the use of having a mayor at all? I know nothing about the case in question, nor having been present when the arrest occurred. Mr. Greeves may be guilty or he may not be guilty. I do not know, and I shall not until I hear the evidence

"Mr Greeves was not intoxicated, of that I am certain, for I saw him and conversed with him shortly after the arrest. This was after I had been summoned from my home by responsible business men of this city, who said they would willingly go on Mr. Greeves's bond Nobody wants to spend a night in prison, especially a man who desires to leave on an early morning train. So, when reliable citizens offered themselves as bondsmen, I felt perfectly justified in ordering the officer to allow the prisoner to go, with the understanding that he was under bond to appear before me at a certain hour The officer had no right to refuse to do so If the prisoner had been charged with murder it would have been different, but he was being held for a mere misdemeanor. I should have done the same had it been anybody else In fact the law compels a magistrate to release a man if bond is given Besides, the remarks addressed to me by Policeman McGuire were of an insolent character, and if I had not acted in this case, I should have no right to act in any others that may arise I do not have to tolerate this sort of thing, and I do not propose to"

WILL APPOINT NO ONE.

Officer M'Guire's Place Will be Vacant for the Present.

For the present, at least, Policeman McGuire's place on the force will be vacant Mayor Wise says the officer will be under suspension until the council meets. What will then be done, nobody knows, but the mayor will doubtless prefer a charge of disobedience against McGuire. "There is no need for appointing anyone in McGuire's place," said the mayor today. "Within a day or two it will be necessary to put on fifteen or more special officers to look after street fair property. These, with the regular force, will be quite enough."

THE SOLICITOR'S VIEW.

Mayor Cannot Release Prisoner Without Bond or Recognizance.

"A prisoner," said City Solicitor Willison, today, "must either give bond for his later appearance or else take an oath that he will appear at a time set by the court. The bond must be in writing. The mayor has no more right to release a man upon his own word or that of another than anybody else."

THE MAYOR'S VIEW.

His Idea of the Powers of the Executive Head.

Mayor Wise was asked if he considered it within his power to order the release of a person under arrest before he had a hearing.

"I certainly do," he replied. "If a man under arrest or the friends of such a person give security for the later appearance of the prisoner, I have the right to order his release without a hearing, and the police should do so without question That is what I did Wednesday night, when Officer McGuire took it upon himself to point out my duty, and I shall do it in every case which comes up in the future."

THE POLICEMAN TALKS.

Officer McGuire Makes a Statement for "The Independent."

"At 12 o'clock Wednesday night I was informed by two of my brother officers that there was considerable noise on my beat in the neighborhood of the Conrad Hotel. I went in that direction and found that the noise came from a crowd in a saloon nearby. I remained near by, and about 12:45 the crowd came out and congregated in front of the Hotel Conrad, talking and laughing and some of them swearing in a good-natured way among themselves, but in too loud a manner to be in front of any house where people were sleeping. As it got to be about 1:15 and the fellows did not seem disposed to leave or keep quiet, I crossed the road and said: "Fellows, this swearing must be stopped, and at once," saying also that people wanted to sleep in the hotel.

"One young man turned to me and said, 'I am not swearing.' In order to get to the center of the crowd I pushed the young man aside, and said to him, 'I do not mean anyone that is not swearing, I mean those that are.' It was then that this smart man Greeves, who is from Cleveland, and had enough of Massillon booze to make him think he could abuse the Massillon policemen all he wanted to, turning to me, began by telling me what I could do and what I could not do. I told him to keep quiet, that he was talking in too loud a manner, and if he did not keep quite I would be forced to lock him up. This I told him three times or more. He continued with his abusive remarks, at the same time saying, 'I would just like to see No. 2 lock me up, and I will not leave the sidewalk until he does lock me up.' and saying a number of times, 'lock me up,' and at last said, 'I will fix you,' at the same time shaking his hand at me; so I though it was my place to do the 'fixing' act, so in he went.

"Some of the man's friends went to the mayor's residence to get him to release the prisoner. The mayor called me by 'phone, so he said, and when he could not hear from me he came and found me at the Hotel Conrad. Calling me aside, he asked me about the case. I told him the facts. He then said: 'Well, let him out. His friends will go his bail.' As there was no bail signed, I refused to release the prisoner, and told the mayor if he wanted to talk to me to walk along with me, as I had my district to look after. The mayor walked along to North Erie street, quarrelling with me as we went along and ordering me to let the man out. Officers Getz and Ertle came along at this moment and heard the latter part of our conversation. The mayor asked them what they knew about the case. They told the mayor they heard the man Greeves talking and saw the arrest, and that, had it been them, they would have locked the man up sooner than I did."

CANTON WILL BE HERE

Business Men Will Come to the Fair in a Special Car.

THE VERY LATEST DEVELOPMENTS

Resolutions Adopted at the Meeting Thursday Evening—Sherman Budd Sworn in as an Officer to Protect Street Fair Property—Others to be Appointed.

It was announced at the Thursday evening meeting of the Massillon Business Men's Free Street Fair Association that a large number of Canton merchants had agreed to close their places of business on Thursday afternoon, at which time they will come to Massillon in special cars to attend the fair. These merchants are those who closed their stores on the first afternoon of the Canton fair. The Elks are coming in a body, and will bring a band. This was welcome news to the promoters of the Massillon fair, and immediately after the announcement, Postmaster Shepley presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Inasmuch as the business men and the Elks of Canton have signified their intention to visit the Massillon Free Street Fair Thursday afternoon, we should respectfully request the Massillon business men to name a committee of not less than fifteen to meet our visiting neighbors at the street car barns, and escort them into the city, and show them such courtesies as will be fitting to the occasion."

C. M. Whitman was appointed to notify Joseph Coleman, president of the Business Men's Association, an organization famous in its day, of the action taken, and to request him to name the committee of fifteen. The latter are all to be non-members of the Massillon Business Men's Free Street Fair Association. This had not been done at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Thousands of people will drive to Massillon while the fair is in progress on September 21, 22, 23 and 24, and places other than the streets must be provided for the horses and vehicles. Mrs. Augusta Russell has notified the association that a certain part of her property may be used for the purpose. One hundred horses can be cared for here.

Children's day will be Wednesday at the fair. From 12 to 4 o'clock on that day all children will be allowed to attend. The Midway will be free to them. After Wednesday, no children will be allowed to enter the grounds unless accompanied by their parents.

Merchants are hereby notified that the booths are practically completed, and that they may now begin their preparations for exhibts. On Thursday Mayor Wise swore in Sherman Budd as a special policeman, his sole duty being to guard street fair property, and fifteen more will be appointed in a few days. All things placed in the booths now will be perfectly safe.

The German village promises to be one of the most unique features of the fair. The local lodge of Elks will have charge of the village.

IDAHO THE WINNER.

A Race for a Wager at Orrville on Thursday.

The match race between Idaho, owned by A C Stansbury, and Langtry B., owned by C. F. Porter, of Massillon, which took place at Orrville Thursday afternoon, was won by Idaho, who took three straight heats. A wager of fifty dollars each was made by the owners The 2:18 trot, in which J. C. Streeter's horse, Minting, competed, was not finished Thursday. Billy G. took two heats, with Minting second. The third heat was won by Allie King, and the race was postponed. In order to secure second place it will be necessary for Minting to win a heat today. Black Cecil will not be entered today.

Death's Betrothal.

A few years ago a New York newspaper conducted an open discussion upon the topic: "Is Marriage a Failure?" The answer is easy and upon the surface. Where there is mutual love and respect, if there is also health, marriage is a success. When health is left out, even the most ardent love does not count, and marriage is invariably a failure.

Modern science has cried the warning so often that all should realize the dangers of wedlock to people in ill-health. In a case of this kind death lurks on every side—in the kiss of betrothal and the caress of the honeymoon. The man who is suffering from ill-health is a physical bankrupt, and has no right to condemn a woman to be his nurse for life and the mother of babes that inherit his physical weakness. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts directly on the digestive organism. It makes it strong and its action perfect. When a man's digestion is all right his blood will be pure; when his blood is pure his nervous system will be strong and his health vigorous.

A woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the delicate organism of her sex is certain to suffer from general ill-health, and to be an unhappy, helpless invalid and a disappointment as a wife. Her children will be weak, puny and peevish. A happy home is an impossibility for her until her health is restored. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all troubles of the distinctly feminine organism. It cures them speedily, completely and permanently. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Both medicines are sold by all good dealers.

DETERMINED STRIKE.

Neither Side Will Yield at Monongahela, Pa.

STRIKERS' PLACED UNDER ARREST

Accused of Unlawful Assemblage, Riot and Assault and Battery—More Likely to Be Arrested—Refused to Take Bail. Taken to Washington, Pa.

MONONGAHELA, Pa., Sept. 17.—Besides the arrest of the marchers there were no startling developments in the coal miners' strike in the third pool yesterday. The forces of the campers were materially weakened, but many new recruits are expected today. Both sides seem determined.

A massmeeting of the miners was held at New Eagle Bottoms, about one mile from Monongahela, yesterday afternoon. The attendance was large. Addresses were made by District President Patrick Dolan and Organizer Edward McKay. A resolution to continue the strike with increased vigor was unanimously adopted. Last night religious services were held at Camp Dewey. Rev. W. H. Palmer, D. D., preached to the strikers.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Kennedy and his deputies arrested 32 of the striking miners. Among their number is Vice President William Dodds and John Hepnar, a Slav interpreter. Warrants have been issued for 41 strikers, and it is expected that more arrests will follow today. Vice President Dodds assisted the officers in identifying the men for whom warrants had been issued. The charges are unlawful assembly, riot and riotous assault and battery. The men refused to accept bail, which was offered by Monongahela citizens, and were taken to the Washington county jail in the afternoon. Among those arrested are the members of the New England band, who have been furnishing the music.

THE DISMEMBERED WOMAN.

Body Found Near Bridgeport, Conn., Identified as Miss Perkins of Middleboro, Mass.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 17.—As a result of yesterday's developments there seems to be almost no doubt that the woman, whose dismembered body was found early in the week in the Yellow mill pond, was Grace Marian Perkins of Middleboro, Mass.

Miss Perkins left Middleboro about three weeks ago, presumably with one Charles Bourne, a young man of the town, and since that time all trace of her has been lost. The police here have been making efforts to locate Bourne. The police are eager to ascertain the whereabouts of Dr. "Nancy" Guilford.

The New Haven county jailer has come across three articles of clothing formerly owned by Dr. Gill, husband of Nancy Gilford, and once an inmate of the jail, on each of which it is stated, appears the fateful characters "G, 51," which were also upon a piece of a man's undergarment in one of the bundles which was found in the mill pond.

A CHARGE BY JENKS.

He Accused Beacom of Not Disclosing True Condition of State Finances.

WARREN, Sept. 17.—George A. Jenks in a speech here yesterday declared that with the figures of the Republican State Treasurer Beacom's reported, submitted as his annual, shows there are claims against the state aggregating $2,143,000, to meet which there is no cash available. Mr. Jenks accused the treasurer of concealing this condition of affairs from the people by a mass of figures, and shows his report as authority.

William H. Sowden, candidate for lieutenant governor, charged William A. Stone, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, with being a machine plunderer.

CAN EXPEL THE FRENCH.

General Kitchener Said to Have Authority to Claim Fashoda.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—A dispatch to The Morning Post from Cairo says that General Kitchener has absolute authority to claim Fashoda as Egyptian territory and to expel the present occupants forcibly, if necessary. Fashoda, the correspondent says, will then be occupied by an Egyptian garrison.

The Daily Telegraph's Cairo correspondent says that General Kitchener intends to present an ultimatum demanding that the French expedition under Major Marchand quit Fashoda forthwith.

Mob Got After Toral.

VIGO, Spain, Sept. 17.—A crowd, when they saw soldiers from Santiago, Cuba, landing barefooted and nearly naked, became infuriated and surrounded General Toral's house, hooting and hissing and stoning the building. Eventually the Spanish general succeeded in escaping to the Leon XIII. On learning this the mob gathered on the dock and stoned the steamer for half an hour, wrecking the cabin windows The Leon XIII was obliged to leave the place where she was moored.

Died of His Wounds.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 17.—John Stein, who was shot several times by Policeman Conrad Sill, whom he had previously wounded with a revolver late Thursday night on Mt. Oliver, died late yesterday afternoon. Officer Sill, who was shot three times, will probably recover. Mrs. Nicholas Denmarsh, sister of the dead man, who was also shot by him, is not seriously hurt.

Battery Reached Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 17.—Hampton Battery B received a great welcome in this city on arrival home yesterday afternoon. It is estimated that thousands of citizens did them honor. They had been in Porto Rico.

President to Visit Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 17.—A telegram was received yesterday from Washington stating that President McKinley will visit Indianapolis on his way to Omaha and make a short political address.

NEEDED NO MORE MEN.

This the Cheering News General Otis Sent Based on Then Existing Conditions at Manila.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Two dispatches were received from General Otis, dated Manila, Sept. 16, 1898, and were made public yesterday.

In one he said that based upon present indications, no further force was required. Insurgent leaders in politics and army were in excitable frame of mind, but better portion was amenable to reason.

In another dispatch, he said insurgents had evacuated Manila, except small force in one outlying district. No difficulty was anticipated and he had made no concessions. They expressed strong desire to maintain friendly intercourse with the United States government. They organized a congress Thursday, at Malolas to form a plan of government.

A large force was policing and cleaning the city. Trade and commerce were active. Treasury receipts since Aug. 14, $540,000 Mexican current money; monthly expenses, about $350,000; nearly one-half required to subsist 13,000 Spanish prisoners.

United States laws applied for admission of Chinese and opium; sale of licenses for lotteries and other pastimes opposed by public morals discontinued.

The Manila dispatches stating that Aguinaldo had assembled all of the Filipinos at Malolos was said to give no apprehension to war department officials, as they felt satisfied that the opportunity for a real crisis was past when Aguinaldo removed his forces from the suburbs of Manila. So long as the American forces in and about Manila are left untrammeled there is no disposition to restrict Aguinaldo in holding meetings of his followers outside of the immediate field of American operations.

DENBY MAY SERVE.

Talked of as a Possible Member of the Commission to Investigate the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The expectation was yesterday that Hon. Charles Denby, ex-minister to China, would accept the president's invitation to become a member of the commission which is to investigate the conduct of the war department during the war with Spain. This, with the other persons who have practically indicated their willingness to serve, makes six in all, the remaining five being Messrs. Howell, Sexton, Keen, Dodge and Gilman. General Schofield's decision is said to be reserved. He is to have another conference with the president today.

The president thinks the commission should consist of nine members.

EXPECT WITHDRAWAL.

Aguinaldo Professes to Believe That the Americans Will Now Leave Manila.

MANILA, Sept. 17.—The Philippine national assembly was inaugurated at Malolos Thursday with great enthusiasm. Aguinaldo convened the assembly. He was received with cheers and with cries of "viva America."

Later, in an interview, Aguinaldo declined to discuss the American army and protested his undying gratitude to the Americans. He said they had come to the Philippines to fight the Spaniards only, and now that they had finished the task, it was expected that they would return to America.

He was unwilling to believe that the Americans would demand a reward for an act of humanity, and he declined to admit the necessity of a quid pro quo.

Refusal of Pay From Negro.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Paymaster General Stanton turned over to the president yesterday all the papers relating to the refusal of a Texas regiment to receive pay from Major Lynch because he is colored. The president yesterday had taken no definite action beyond expressing approval of General Stanton's course in sending a sharp dispatch to the commanding paymaster of that department, stating in effect that the troops must take their pay from Lynch or else go without pay.

RELIEF FUND RAISED.

Some People Were Starving, Owing to West Indian Hurricane—A Number Killed.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 17.—The hurricane of Sunday was undoubtedly one of the worst visitations of the kind experienced by the West Indies during the century, both in violence and extent. The hurricane swept along the island chain, from Barbados westward to St. Vincent and thence northwest to St. Kitts, where it was last heard from.

Details received from St. Vincent show that out of a population of 41,000 300 were killed and 20,000 were injured and rendered homeless. Besides this, owing to the complete destruction of the provisions they were all starving.

Relief funds are being raised in response to an appeal from the governor of St. Vincent, where all descriptions of food and clothing and other necessaries were lost in the general destruction. There is demand for building materials.

SALVATION ARMY IN DAWSON.

Barracks Erected In the Klondike City. Returning Miners.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Sept. 17.—The steamer City of Seattle arrived yesterday from Skaguay with 150 Klondikers, who left Dawson Sept. 2. The amount of gold dust brought out is variously estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000

The Salvation Army has just completed large barracks at Dawson, and have already commenced the work of taking care of the sick and relieving the distress.

One to Be the Ohio.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The three battleships which have been contracted for have been assigned to the builders as follows: The Ohio to the Union ironworks of San Francisco, the Missouri to the Newport News company, the Maine to Cramp & Sons of Philadelphia.

ARMY IN THE SOUTH.

Being Assembled For Occupation of Porto Rico and Cuba.

WISH TO TAKE NO CHANCES.

Officials of War Department Do Not Intend to Send Troops to Cuba Until After Unhealthy Season Has Passed. Say Trouble Is Not Feared.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The military movements are being directed rapidly toward the assembling of a large army in southern stations for winter camps and preparatory to the military occupation of Cuba and Porto Rico. About 70,000 troops are now located in the south and orders will be issued and others have been issued sending more south.

The major part of the army thus assembled is destined for service in Cuba, with a much smaller force for Porto Rico and a reserve in the winter camps. It is not the intention, however, to send the army of occupation to Cuba until after the unhealthy season has passed and meanwhile the troops are intended to be put in the best possible condition.

On account of the desire of the war department that no chances shall be taken in the way of exposure of the troops to the dangers of the unhealthy season no impatience is felt on account of the rather slow progress of the work of the commission of evacuation at Havana. Great satisfaction is expressed at the progress being made in Porto Rico, and the evacuation is expected to occur speedily; but in connection with the occupation of Porto Rico the same anxiety as to the health of the army is felt, nor are there similar difficulties in connection with establishing the government, Porto Rico becoming at once a part of the territory of the United States.

In assembling and organizing the army for the occupation of Cuba the consideration of possible trouble with the organized insurgents is not being taken into serious account. The Havana dispatches stating that there has developed a strong sentiment in favor of independence and opposition to annexation, coupled with hostility toward the United States, is read with rather an air of amusement by officials of the administration, who suggest that it is absurd to give as a reason for hostility on the part of Cubans toward the United States that the Cubans are in favor of entire independence The purpose of the Cubans to establish a stable independent form of government is strictly in accordance with the terms of the president's proclamation, and, therefore, furnishes no reason for a feeling of hostility.

All the information in the possession of the war department, it is said, indicates the most cordial relations and harmony of purpose between the Cubans and the representatives of this government.

TO CONSOLIDATE HOSPITALS.

Order Issued at Camp Meade—Men Becoming More Restless—May Be Mutiny.

CAMP MEADE, MIDDLETOWN, Pa., Sept. 17.—Chief Surgeon Girard issued an order yesterday consolidating the Red Cross hospitals with the Second division hospitals under the management of Major Charles C. Wiley of the Eighteenth Pennsylvania regiment. Captain Wittington of the Fourth Missouri will be retained as executive officer. The female nurses furnished by the Red Cross society can be used to better advantage by the consolidation of these hospitals.

The movement of troops from camp to the south to prepare for garrison duty in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines will begin early in October. The corps will have been established and in good working order by that time.

The fever patients in the general hospitals will be sent to Philadelphia as rapidly as they become strong enough to be moved. Surgeon General Sternberg believes the sick do better in city hospitals than in tents and has arranged with several Philadelphia hospitals to take care of this class of invalids.

A majority of the men in camp are becoming more and more restless, and, unless the war department acts promptly, there may be mutiny in some of the commands.

In the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Pennsylvania regiments the men have no disposition to make requisition for overcoats because they will have to pay for them They still hope to be mustered out before the weather gets too cold for their present equipment.

As long as the war department continues to muster out a regiment here and there the discontent among the men will continue and every time a regiment leaves camp for home the epidemic of homesickness among those left behind increases in virulence

Major Charles H. Parke of Scranton will be arraigned before the general courtmartial today for neglecting to furnish descriptive lists of patients sent from the Second division hospital, of which he was surgeon in charge, to Philadelphia hospitals.

THANKS FROM THE SICK.

A Note Sent From the Yellow Fever Hospital Near Santiago—More Aid Needed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The following note of thanks to those who have contributed to the relief of our sick in Cuba has been received by one of the field correspondents of The Associated Press in a letter from Santiago:

"U. S. YELLOW FEVER HOSPITAL, SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 29.

"In behalf of the sick who have been and are now in this hospital I wish to thank the noble men, women, boys and girls of the United States who have contributed to the relief of our poor sick in Cuba.

"If those who have aided in this good work could see only one of the beams of delight from the eyes of the convalescents or the sad smile of pleasure from the pain-furrowed brow of the sick when something is given with the words 'take this, it will do you good,' or 'use this, it was sent from home,' it would repay the givers a hundred fold for all their trouble and expense. Only heaven's recording angel with a pen divinely inspired could picture the want, suffering and sickness of our soldiers on this island. Our sick in this hospital when they have received the much needed delicacies sent from America have never failed to cheer up, as though there were tonic in the mere fact of the gift, and seldom do they fail to say with sparkling eyes, 'God bless the dear people at home.'

"ORLAND DUCKER,
"Surgeon in Charge."

The hospital in question has been established on an island in Santiago, about two miles from the city. The letter quoted states that conditions have greatly improved during August, but there is still much need of delicacies such as can only be had through the kindly contributions from the states. Yellow fever has been less a scourge than had been expected, the death rate being held down to 12 per cent, but typhoid has proved deadly, chiefly owing to the impossibility of obtaining the light nourishment so necessary in the treatment of the disease.

General Lawton Gave That Many In His Daily Health Report—Total Sick 1,222.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The following is General Lawton's daily health report received yesterday:

"SANTIAGO, Sept. 16.—Total sick, 1,222; fever, 837; new cases, 165; returned to duty, 318. Kingston, corporal, Company M, Ninth United States volunteers, bilious fever; Jerome Lavassar, Ninth United States volunteers, bilious fever.

An Emperor's Attic.

The winter palace of the czar surpasses any other palace in Europe. It is on the banks of the Neva and owes its existence to the Empress Catherine II, that most extraordinary woman, extraordinary in ability and in vice, the surprise of all her contemporaries and the wonder of all who have studied her character The building is four stories high, of a light brown color and highly ornamental in architecture. It is a wilderness of halls, stairways and apartments. The Nicholas hall and the St. George's hall will never be forgotten by those who have seen them.

One of the most interesting rooms is that where Nicholas I died. It is in the upper story of the northeast corner of the building and is approached by four doors and finally by a narrow passage. It is a small room, only about 18 feet long and 12 feet wide, with two small windows, and is the place where the emperor spent most of his time when not officially employed. It is the room in which he died, some say by poison administered by himself in a fit of melancholy induced by the outcome of the Crimean war The room remains just as he left it. Near the center is a plain iron bedstead. Some chairs and a few cheap pictures adorn the room, and a dilapidated, down at the heel pair of slippers complete the furnishings of the attic room in the palace

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Secretary Long yesterday afternoon issued an important order reorganizing the North Atlantic squadron. The fleet is to be reduced from a force of about 100 vessels to 32, the remainder being detached ready for disposition in the future.

The fleet, as reorganized, will consist of the Indiana, Massachusetts, Texas, New York, Brooklyn Amphitrite, Puritan, Miantonomah, Terror, Cincinnati, Montgomery, Newark, San Francisco, Detroit, Marblehead, Mayflower, New Orleans, Bancroft, Marietta, Topeka, Castine, Nashville, Wilmington, Michias, Princeton, Fern, Wasp, Hist, Resolute, Potomac, Scorpion and Alvaredo.

HASKELL FELL DEAD.

Died After Welcoming His Boys Home to Columbus.

HE WAS A HERO OF EL CANEY.

Led the Seventeenth Regulars Up the Hill and Received Three Wounds—The Excitement of the Great Demonstration Evidently Too Much For the Officer.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 17.—Brigadier General J. T. Haskell, U. S. A., dropped dead at the barracks yesterday afternoon. The excitement of the day, incident to the return of the Seventeenth infantry, brought on heart failure.

Yesterday morning the Seventeenth regiment returned home and General Haskell went to the depot in a carriage to welcome his gallant men. He rode at the head of the regiment, and the cheers of the immense crowds were directed almost as much to him individually as to the regiment. At the reviewing stand the crowd surrounded the carriage and flowers were fairly showered into the vehicle.

Although not as strong as formerly, General Haskell appeared rugged, and his sudden death was a terrible shock. About 1.30 p. m. Captain Clay called at General Haskell's residence to pay his respects. They had been engaged in conversation about five minutes when General Haskell suddenly started to his feet, clasping his hands to his head, then fell to the floor. Mrs. Haskell was prostrated by her husband's death. Two sons survive him.

When Colonel Poland was appointed Brigadier General at the outbreak of the war General Haskell as lieutenant colonel assumed command of the Seventeenth United States infantry and led that regiment in the battle of El Caney, in which he distinguished himself for bravery. He led the regiment through the succession of barbed wire fences that surrounded the blockhouses at El Caney until he was shot. First a bullet struck his right shoe, grazing his heel. Then he was shot in the left shoulder Then he received a bullet in his knee. General Haskell lay the remainder of the day on the firing line, such attention being given to his wounds as the improvised hospital service provided. For his bravery at El Caney, Colonel Haskell was recently promoted to brigadier general.

COMMISSION STARTED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The peace commissioners, with the exception of Senator Gray, who is expected to join the party at New York today, left Washington yesterday afternoon over the Pennsylvania railroad without any ceremonies The commissioners were accompanied by a considerable staff of attaches and Edward Savoy, who is intended to be on guard at the doors of the rooms where the commissioners will take up their quarters.

Before leaving the state department Secretary Day held a reception and said farewell to all of the employes individually.

Captain Bradford, chief of the bureau of equipment of the navy department, was ordered to Paris because he is informed as to the needs of the navy in the matters of coaling and naval stations. He may go on the next steamer.

Day resigned as secretary of state before leaving and Moore as assistant secretary.

The peace commissioners are scheduled to sail this afternoon for Europe.

MUST HAVE PROOF OF GUILT.

Governor Budd Declared He Would Not Grant Extradition on Present Papers

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The proceedings in the Botkin extradition case were resumed yesterday before Governor Budd. The governor rather indignantly questioned the right of Delaware officials to send papers to this state when the laws of Delaware require absolute proof of the guilt of an accused person before that state will permit of extradition from that state.

The governor declared that he would not grant extradition papers upon the show made by the Delaware authorities, unless the papers in the case were absolutely perfect, which property he denied were possessed by the papers now before him.

AN IMPORTANT QUERY.

Which Permits of Only One Honest Answer.

This unavoidable question has to be answered honestly by Massillon people after they have read the opinion given below by Mrs. Martin Richardson, of 124 Front St., which of a dozen articles all making the same claim can I depend upon the more one endorsed by people well known in Massillon, or eleven endorsed by utter strangers. Read this this and compare the evidence with other statements about other kidney remedies published side by side with it in the columns of this paper. Mrs. Richardson says: "Ten years ago I had a severe attack of typhoid malaria and when I recovered I found that my kidneys were seriously affected. They always had troubled me some for kidney disease runs in our family. When I was able to be about after my severe sickness every symptom of dropsy set in—my feet and body swelling so that I could not wear ordinary clothes or shoes. My back ached terribly and I was distressed and annoyed with a urinary weakness. My knees swelled so that they felt as if they had been unjointed, and for a long time I had to walk with two canes. I had doctored so much for it and spent dollar after dollar until I became discouraged. Statements appeared in the papers about Doan's Kidney Pills that read so encouragingly that I was induced to make another effort, and I got a box at Baltzly's drug store. In a few days I could notice quite an improvement and I improved right along until all the symptoms left me. The swelling was reduced, the kidney secretions regulated, and the pains did not trouble me as they had for ten years. Doan's Kidney Pills did me a wonderful amount of good and I give them credit for it and recommend them to all who have kidney disease or dropsy. One box will encourage anyone and convince them that they are what they are represented to be."

ORDINANCE AMENDED.

Result of the Conference Held Thursday Night.

AN ADDITIONAL GLASS FACTORY.

Reed & Company Will Build One, Provided Natural Gas is Admitted to Massillon—Citizens Generally Favor Granting the Franchise.

The council as a whole, with Solicitor Willison and Clerk Haring, assembled in the council chamber Thursday night for the purpose of considering the ordinance granting a franchise to the East Ohio Gas Company. Representative McDowell, of the company, was also present, and the following amendments to the ordinance as presented to the council Monday night were agreed upon:

The street and alley committee and the gas company will have charge of the location of all the pipes within the city and all work must be done under the supervision of City Engineer Borton, the company employing him for that purpose. As far as possible, the company will employ unskilled laborers who are residents of Massillon. A reduction of 10 per cent. from the net price of gas will be allowed city buildings, public schools, public library and all churches. The amendments are of a minor nature and the ordinance will no doubt be passed without difficulty at the next regular meeting. The Canal Dover council granted the company a franchise last night, the vote being unanimous.

The admittance of the company's pipe line is almost univerally favored here, the manufacturers especially being interested. It is yet a question whether or not gas will be cheaper than coal for fuel, but it is certainly more desirable. Reed & Co are very desirous of securing gas, and David Reed stated today that providing the gas company was permitted to supply Massillon an additional glass factory would be erected by his company. This will furnish employment to a force of over fifty men and boys and will increase the company's output about 25 per cent.

$375 FOR BOOKS.

The Township School Board Holds a Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Perry township board of education was held in Massillon Thursday evening, Members Kerstetter, Bonvolat, Schwier, Essig, Smith, Leeper and Allen being present.

Clerk E. W. Busby submitted his financial report for the year ending September 1, 1898, which, on Mr. Leeper's motion was accepted. The report shows that on September 1, 1897, the amount on hand was $4,960.20. The receipts for the year amounted to $4,945.90. The total expenditures were $5,632.97, leaving a balance of $4,273.13. The balance this year is considerably lower than last year, which is accounted for by the fact that a music teacher is now being paid $40 a month, and that the board now allows fifteen cents a day for a janitor for each building. Formerly the teachers were obliged to do this work themselves or hire someone to do it, paying for it out of their salaries.

The $500 bond of Clerk Busby, recently re-elected, was presented and approved. It names J. H. Hunt and E. C. Segner as sureties. Mr. Smith made the motion.

On motion of Mr. Bonvolat, it was decided to purchase ten sets of New Education, a work on language, at $37 50 a set. Mr. Smith voted no. Mr. Leeper's motion to authorize the payment of $375 to N. W. Springer, the publisher of the books, immediately upon their delivery, was carried. Mr. Smith left before the question was put to a vote. The money is to come out of the contingent fund.

HIS BOND APPROVED.

Township Clerk E. W. Busby Makes His Report to the Trustees.

The township trustees have approved Township Clerk Earl W. Busby's bond of $500, signed by J. H. Hunt and E. C. Segner as sureties. Having been re-elected, a renewal of the bond was necessary. Clerk Busby has made his report for the year ending September 1st, 1898, which shows the present condition of the various funds to be as follows: Township fund, $1,608.44; poor fund, $3,625.51; road fund, $700.75. Clerk Busby is required by law to give two bonds of $500 each, one to the township board of education and one to the township board of trustees.

WAS VERY LENIENT.

Massillon Police Think Burglars Deserved Severer Sentences.

The Massillon police, who captured two men wanted for burglary the other day, are not at all satisfied with the manner in which Justice Keck disposed of the cases. The accused were Peter Blocher and Henry Dulabahn, and both were given workhouse sentences. The men were deeply implicated in two burglaries, according to the confession of one, and should have been bound over to court and dealt with more severely, Massillon people think. Justice Keck holds court at McDonaldsville.

HARRY GENET DEAD.

About 160 patients were transferred today from the Columbus state hospital to the Massillon institution. They arrived in the city at 1 o'clock, via the Pennsylvania railway, and were conveyed to the hospital in street cars and carriages. Dr. E. G. Carpenter, superintendent of the Columbus institution, several assistants and a number of attendants had charge of the patients, who were brought from Columbus in three coaches.

RACES AT ORRVILLE.

Massillon Horses Make a Splendid Showing.

MINTING WINS THE FREE FOR ALL.

The Sixth Successful Matinee Given by the Local Driving Club—Nearly a Hundred Massillonians in Attendance—A Match Race Between Langtry and Idaho.

The Massillonians who attended the Orrville fair Wednesday enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The Massillon Driving Club races attracted wide attention and were exciting throughout. The track was not in the best condition, but notwithstanding this fact excellent time was made. The horses never went better and were cheered from the grand stand at every finish. A 2.33 pace for a purse of $150 preceded the Massillon club races and was won by Ralph K, owned by R. McMillen, of Uhrichsville. Pop, owned by H. S. Croy, of Canton, and Sweet Marie, owned by Sim Burrows, of Cleveland, finished second and third respectively. The best time made was 2:21¼.

All of the local horses had been sent to the track a day or more in advance of the races and were in excellent condition and their appearance, speed and handling prompted much comment. The officers of the fair association and the people generally showed their appreciation of the matinee in every manner possible. Chattie C, H. F. Pocock's horse, was unusually fast Wednesday, winning the first event from Scott and Walter F. Minting, Dessie K. and J. R. finished the race of the day, the result being just the reverse of the free-for-all at the last matinee. Idaho secured the final race, C. F. Porter's horse, Langtry B., taking second place. DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION.

Charles C. Weybrecht, of Alliance, Nominated for Congress.

ALLIANCE, Sept. 16.—Major Charles C. Weybrecht, of this city, was nominated on the second ballot by the Democratic congressional convention. His name was presented by Mayor James Rice, of Canton, and was enthusiastically received. Mr. Weybrecht's opponent was J. H. Morris, of Youngstown, whose name was presented by E. H. Moore, of that city. The first ballot resulted as follows: First—J. H. Morris 55, C. C. Weybrecht 73, Mr Taylor, Columbiana county, 50, General Sherwood, Stark, 22. second—Weybrecht 110½ Morris 63, Taylor 1, Sherwood 53½

The convention was called to order by G. W. Walton, of Salem, chairman of the district committee, and the invocation was delivered by the Rev. A. M. Chamberlain. Mayor E. H. Moore, of Youngstown, and John P. Harmony, of Alliance, were then made temporary chairman and secretary. Mr. Moore spoke briefly, defining the duties of the Democrats of the Eighteenth district, stating that the party had nearly met an ignominious death through Grover Clevelandism. His reference to Admiral Dewey was met with a storm of applause, and he then took pains to score Secretary Alger for alleged mismanagement of the war. The committees were then appointed. On the committee on resolutions were: B. Rinkenberger, of Columbiana; C. E. Maurer, of Mahoning, and Atlee Pomerene, of Stark.

PLAYED WITH A REVOLVER.

Eight-Year-Old Kent Hammer Accidentally Shoots Himself.

CANAL FULTON, Sept. 16.—Kent Hammer, the eight-year old son of Edward Hammer, of Akron, formerly a resident of Massillon, accidentally shot himself this morning. The boy, who has been visiting his grandmother, on the Simon Hammer farm, went into the bed room of his uncle, Charles Hammer, to look for a husking machine, but becoming interested in a revolver which he found under a pillow on the bed, he managed in some way to discharge it, the ball shattering the cheek bone under his left eye. Dr. Dissinger was called in, but up to this time the ball has not been found. The boy's condition is serious, but unless blood poisoning should set in, it is thought that he will recover.

THE MAJOR'S EXPERIENCE.

How He Spent the Greater Part of His Life—A Time When His Life was in Danger.

From the Free Press, Detroit, Mich.

One of the staunchest supporters of the deep-water way from the Great Lakes to the ocean is Maj. A. C. Bishop, of 715 Third Ave., Detroit, Mich.

MAJOR A. C. BISHOP.

Maj. Bishop has had unusual experience in that line of work and probably few are so well qualified to speak intelligently of it as he. For the greater part of his life he has been engaged in water ways, and is one of the oldest and best known civil engineers north of the Ohio river.

Commencing in 1850, he was for a number of years an assistant engineer for the Hudson River Railroad, and later held like positions with the Genesee Valley Canal, New York, and also the Des Moines River Improvement and Railroad Co.

He has been superintendent of large mining operations and when the State Reformatory at Elmira, N. Y., was built, he was superintendent and engineer in charge of the construction.

Major Bishop was attached to the staff of Brigadier General Chamberlin, of the National Guard of New York, with the rank of Major from 1857 to 1865.

He has been located in Detroit since 1885, and has a large acquaintance among the business men and citizens of this city.

Two years ago, for the first time, Major Bishop was in the hospital. For two months he had the best of medical attendance but when he was discharged he was not like the Major Bishop of old.

When asked regarding his health, he said: "When I had my last spell of sickness and came out of the hospital I was a sorry sight, I could not gain my strength, and could not walk over a block for several weeks.

"I noticed some articles in the newspapers regarding Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which convinced me that they were worth trying and bought two boxes. I did not take them for my complexion but for strength. After using them I felt better, and know they did me worlds of good. I am pleased to recommend them to invalids who need a tonic or to build up a shattered constitution. "A. C. BISHOP."

Subscribed and sworn to before me this eighth day of January, 1898.

ROBERT E. HULL, JR., Notary Public.

The pure, powerful vegetable ingredients in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People supply the antidote for poisonous matter in the blood and add those elements needed to build up body and brains. Many diseases long supposed by the medical profession to be incurable have succumbed to the potent influence of these pills. They can be taken by young or old, being harmless in their nature, but powerful in eliminating disease.
